

in Lincoln, IL
THE FIRST CITY TO LIVE THE LEGACY

Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Commission of Lincoln, Illinois

217-735-1612
mayorbethdavis@yahoo.com

City Hall
700 Broadway St.
Lincoln IL. 62656

217-732-3155 ext. 295
rkeller@lincolncollege.edu

Commissioners:

Elizabeth A. Davis, Co-chair
Mayor of Lincoln

Ron J. Keller, Co-chair
Lincoln College Museum

Bobbi Abbott
Chamber of Commerce

Shirley Bartelmay
Postville Courthouse

Paul Beaver
Logan County Historian

Darlene Begolka
Logan Railsplitting Assoc.

Paul E. Gleason
Logan County Historian

John Hutchinson
Lincoln College

Geoff Ladd
Logan County Tourism

Erika Nunamaker
Papers of Abraham Lincoln

Charles Ott
Abraham Lincoln Interpreter

Keith Ray
Lincoln Christian College

Wanda Lee Rohlf's
Main Street Lincoln

Richard Sumrall
Lincoln Public Library

Honorary Commissioners:

U.S. Senator Richard Durbin

U.S. Senator Barack Obama

State Senator Bill Brady

State Senator Larry Bomke

State Rep. Rich Brauer

State Rep. Bill Mitchell

Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Commission of Lincoln IL

April 3, 2008 meeting Agenda

5:00 PM at Lincoln City Hall

1. Welcome, introductions, and announcements
2. Approval of minutes from March meeting
3. Old Business
 - Thursday July 3, 2008—special event from bicentennial commission during Heritage Days
 - i. Mayor Davis-Kavelman updates from Heritage Days
 - ii. Darlene – rail-splitting demonstration
 - iii. Paul – more on presentation
 - Update on painting from Wanda Lee Rohlf's
 - Report from 1858 restaging committee –Ron Keller and Wanda Lee Rohlf's
 - Marker at courthouse on the 1858 rally
 - i. Geoff Ladd, Paul Beaver, Richard Sumrall – funding possibilities and sign ideas
 - Follow-up to progress on other bicentennial goals
4. New Business
 - Karen Deal and Illinois Symphony Orchestra
 - Revised 2008-09 bicentennial schedule
5. Adjournment. Next mtg: May 1 at 5 PM at City Hall

rk