

in Lincoln, IL
THE FIRST CITY TO LIVE THE LEGACY

Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Commission of Lincoln, Illinois

217-735-1612
mayorbethdavis@yahoo.com

City Hall
700 Broadway St.
Lincoln IL. 62656

217-732-3155 ext. 295
rkeller@lincolncollege.edu

Commissioners:

Elizabeth A. Davis, Co-chair
Mayor of Lincoln

Ron J. Keller, Co-chair
Lincoln College Museum

Bobbi Abbott
Chamber of Commerce

Shirley Bartelmay
Postville Courthouse

Paul Beaver
Logan County Historian

Darlene Begolka
Logan Railsplitting Assoc.

Paul E. Gleason
Logan County Historian

John Hutchinson
Lincoln College

Geoff Ladd
Logan County Tourism

Erika Nunamaker
Papers of Abraham Lincoln

Charles Ott
Abraham Lincoln Interpreter

Keith Ray
Lincoln Christian College

Wanda Lee Rohlfis
Main Street Lincoln

Richard Sumrall
Lincoln Public Library

Honorary Commissioners:

U.S. Senator Richard Durbin

U.S. Senator Barack Obama

State Senator Bill Brady

State Senator Larry Bomke

State Rep. Rich Brauer

State Rep. Bill Mitchell

Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Commission of Lincoln IL

February 7, 2008 meeting Agenda

5:00 PM at Lincoln City Hall

1. Welcome, introductions, and announcements
2. Approval of minutes from January meeting
3. Old Business
 - Thursday July 3, 2008 Heritage Days—special event for bicentennial commission
 - Report from 1858 rally restaging committee
 - Marker at courthouse noting the 1858 rally
 - Follow-up to progress on other bicentennial goals
 - Ravinia Music Festival proposal
4. New Business
 - Revised 2008-09 bicentennial schedule
 - Marilyn Craig proposal (fashion show)
5. Adjournment. Next mtg: March 6 at 5 PM at City Hall

rk